THE WORKMEN AND THE MANAGEMENT OF M S. S.P. GRAMOPHONE CO., FARIDABAD.

*Present:—*Nemo for the workman.

AWARD

Shri Om Parkash was in the service of M/S. S. P. Gramophone Co., Mathura Road, Faridabad. His services were terminated and this gave rise to an industrial dispute. Accordingly the Governor of Haryana in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication,—vide Gazette Notification No. ID/FD/97/E, dated 14th October, 1969:—

Whether the termination of services of Shri Om Parkash was justified and in order? If not, to what relief is he entitled?

On receipt of the reference usual notices were issued to the parties for 13th November, 1969. The workman as well as the representative of the management were present but the workman had not filed his claim statement. Accordingly, the case was adjourned to 17th November, 1969 to enable the workman to file his claim statement and then the case was adjourned to 21st November, 1969 for filing the written statement. Thereafter the workman did not appear at all. The issues which arose from the pleadings of the parties were framed and the case was fixed for 1st December, 1969 for evidence. On the date fixed the representative of the management stated that a compromise has been effected between the parties and the workman had received all his dues in full and final settlement and has given a writing Ex. M.1. Since the workman has not appeared at all to support his allegations that the termination of his services was not valid, it must be held that the termination of his services cannot be said to be unjustified. I give my award accordingly. No order as to costs.

Dated: 5th December, 1969.

Presiding Officer,
Industrial Tribunal, Haryana.
